Dear Readers,

Positive Link is not just a monthly update about the school events or articles from contributors. Its more than that.

Let me sight an Illustration here.

Think of a thing which is wrong and of the possibilities of righting them. Study the weakness and imperfections. There is power in your brain to correct them. If possible you will develop that power.

As sure you can train your arm to hold fifty pound out straightly, so surely you can train your brain to deal with problems. You may not be a Newton but if you can condenscend to aim at being an inferior Dwayne Johnson.

You can also find out how much true pleasure there is even in inferior brain gymnastics.

Don't wait till you are old.

Don't wait till you are one day older.

Begin NOW.

It is the THOUGHT that moves the world.
